Art Unit: 1722

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: page 7, line 12, "29 having" what?; "poweer" (page 10, line 20); "64" (page 10, line 26) should be -- 65--.

Appropriate correction is required.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show a crankshaft (page 8, first paragraph) as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1722

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japanese Patent 9-225975 in view of German Patent 69416356 or Buzzell et al.

Japanese Patent '975 discloses the invention substantially as claimed. However, '975 does not disclose convex portions whereby the ejector pins eject the molded article at a point not contacting the convex portions.

References to '356 and Buzzell et al. teach ejection of a molded article having convex portions where the ejector pins do not contact the convex portions.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to shape the article to have convex portions and to position the ejection pins so as not to touch the convex portions in the apparatus of '975 as suggested by '356 and Buzzell et al.

Shaping the cavity to form a seal member would have been obvious since it is well known to shape a cavity to that of the article desired.
